THE UNFORTUNATE.
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
[illegible] COMMERCIAL, [illegible]

[illegible] has [illegible] from visiting the principal Hospitals of [illegible] and practice at his Dispensary [illegible], corner of Commercial, San Francisco [illegible] and those requiring his services
[illegible] has spared neither time nor money in [illegible], and has returned with [illegible] the alleviation of [illegible] suffering.

Terrible Diseases.
[illegible] thousands of [illegible] both male and female [illegible] are dragging out a miserable existence [illegible] effects of [illegible] indulgence, or from [illegible] Look at their pallid [illegible] their broken down [illegible] for the happiness of marriage [illegible]. In this horrid situation [illegible] death closes the scene [illegible] attend to those who are suffering with [illegible] and cured before it be too late. Send [illegible] to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has [illegible] study for years, and who [illegible] the most inveterate case without mercurious drugs. It is important to those who [illegible] to those who are interested in the welfare [illegible] to be careful of the many pretended [illegible] all cities, publishing their skill in curing [illegible] a few days imposing upon the public [illegible] names of eminent physicians from Europe [illegible]. Be therefore careful and make strict [illegible] may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness
[illegible], the consequence of self abuse. This [illegible] depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced [illegible] both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, [illegible] unerring certainty the following train of [illegible] sallow countenance dark spots under the [illegible] head ringing in the ears, noise like the [illegible] and rattling of chariots, uneasiness [illegible] weakness of the limbs confused vision [illegible], loss of confidence diffidence in approach [illegible] a dislike to form new acquaintances, [illegible] society, loss of memory hectic flushes [illegible] eruptions about the face, furred [illegible], coughs, consumption night sweats, [illegible] frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] apply immediately either in person or by [illegible] a cure effected by his new and scientific [illegible] this [illegible] which never fails of effecting [illegible] radical cure. Dr G will give five Hundred [illegible] any person who will prove satisfactorily [illegible] cured of this complaint by either of [illegible] quacks

MARRIED MEN.
[illegible] contemplate marriage who are suffering [illegible] fearful maladies, should not forget the [illegible] resting upon them nor delay to [illegible] relief.
[illegible] is responsible and will give to each [illegible] an instrument binding himself to effect [illegible] permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

[illegible] strictly confidential

[illegible] to the Unfortunate.
[illegible] San Francisco quacks and pretenders [illegible] sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary [illegible] styled doctors whose names are to be [illegible] daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] places, are tradesmen and became [illegible] their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoe [illegible] carriers intelligence office keepers, [illegible] way to avoid imposition is to make [illegible] cost you nothing and may save [illegible] for as advertising physicians in eight [illegible] are bogus, there is no safety in trusting [illegible] till you know who and what they are [illegible] deceive people by exhibiting [illegible], pretended patients letters, etc. [illegible] persons who may call at his office [illegible] that he proposes to cure.

WASHINGTON, May 31—The Cabinet was three hours in session to day mainly on relations with England. The Cabinet sustained the President and the Senate in their position in relation to the supplemental article. The Government has received no dispatch from England to day. Gentlemen in high positions openly express fears of the failure of the treaty

Sumner on the Rampage

WASHINGTON, June 1—The speech of Sumner in the Senate yesterday was over four hours in delivery. It was almost entirely devoted to an elaborate arraignment of President Grant officially and personally couched in language always severe and often bitter. He accused the President of being a gift taker a nepotist a selfish pleasure seeker, spending his time with fast horses in travelling about the country, and loitering at seaside resorts

Logan Answers Sumner

Logan was not surprised at the anxiety of the Democrats to adjourn after the malignant attack made. The assault made yesterday on the President was fit for no deliberative body on earth. It was fit only for the lips of a stump orator who knew no courtesies or decencies. Logan eulogized the President and said I can tell the Senator from Massachusetts that he will now find a response to his malignant speech from every wounded soldier, in the grieving heart of every widowed mother and mourning patriot, which will overwhelm him and all his oratory. These will speak in thunder tones in defence of one of the most gallant soldiers who ever lived in any nation [Loud applause in the galleries, which was with difficulty suppressed]

The Dolly Varden Tariff.

HOW GEN. NEGLEY GAVE THE RIGHT NAME TO THE TINKERED TARIFF BILL AND HOW THE HOUSE RECEIVED IT

The fuller report of the Congressional Globe frequently enables us to correct the injustices done by the meagreness of the telegraphic record of the proceedings of Congress, which fact indeed is the only justification for the continued publication of the Globe itself. We avail ourselves of it now to show that our Congressman, Gen Negley, has taken a much more prominent part in the recent debates concerning the tariff question than he has heretofore obtained credit for. Here is an extract from the House proceedings that tends to demonstrate the fact

Mr Dawes—If my friend thinks that when he has stopped the publishing of books in this country he will make the introduction of foreign books any cheaper, I am sorry for his want of experience and observation. The moment he shall succeed in crushing the publishing houses of this country, the price of books from abroad will be put at just exactly what the cupidity of the foreign bookseller may choose. Thus we educate the minds of our children upon foreign sentiment, instead of American thought, American feeling and American patriotism. That is the reason I regret to see my friend from Indiana taking this position. And it is mortifying to see an Englishman sitting upon the floor, whispering in the ears of members of the house that he may have the privilege of going to England and purchasing his paper or getting his publications printed in England. Sir, I have no sort of sympathy with any such thing, even if I stand here alone upon this floor. Before taking my seat, I will say that the amendment offered by my colleague [Mr Hoar] is necessary, because otherwise we should repeal the existing law

Mr Negley—Mr Chairman, after listening to the patriotic and eloquent remarks of the honorable Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, I rise to enter my protest against this mockery of statesmanship in tinkering with the tariff at the present time, and against the manner in which it is done. It must be evident to the understanding of every member on this floor that the tariff is not the most pressing question before Congress at the present time. There are others, the internal taxes, which should engage more prominently the deliberations of Congress. The apparent indifference all over the country to the eloquent efforts on this question which have emanated from gentlemen on both sides, the apathy of members upon the floor, the frequent roll calls to obtain a quorum when the most important provisions of the bill are pending, indicate to my mind the futility of the whole proceeding. It is very evident, sir, that any effort at the present moment to settle the values of the country will be pernicious and fruitless of the results desired by the true friends of American industries.

Mr Hoar—I rise to a question of order. What is the question before the committee?

The Chairman—There are three amendments pending. The first to be voted on will be that of the gentleman from Massachusetts, [Mr Hoar]. The amendment of the gentleman from Indiana [Mr Kerr] proposing to strike out "twelve and a half" and insert "ten" is not strictly in order, because it is not an amendment to the one reported by the gentleman from Massachusetts. The question on the motion to strike out, made by the gentleman from Indiana, [Mr. Holman,] will come next

Mr Negley—Mr Chairman, I was about to state that the difference of opinion upon this floor, both among the members of the committee of Ways and Means and other members of the house, indicates that they do not agree, and do not understand the provisions of the bill. The expressions of opinion throughout the country prove conclusively that if this bill becomes a law it will be considered the great "Dolly Varden" bill of the Forty-second Congress [laughter]; and when the gentleman from New York [Mr. Cox] who sotto voce says that it is a good name and hereafter prostrates himself at the feet of the great champion of protection Mr. Greeley and surrenders the free trade principles of his party in behalf of a cause to which I am devoted I will shake hands with him and we shall no longer differ as to the fact that the protection of American industry is at least intelligent and respectable and that good wages and steady employment stimulate all the agencies whereby our fields of wheat, corn and cotton, and our mines of coal iron, copper lead, and precious metals yield their harvests and treasures to augment the power and wealth of the nation

From the Vancouver Register: "An extensive sale of condemned Government arms and other articles took place yesterday, under the direction of Major Kress at the arsenal at that place. C. H. Whitney purchased some 40,000 lbs of lead for five cents per pound, condemned cannon sold to Mr Shoneff r $3 each, and Mr Leaver purchased a large lot of Colt's revolvers at an average price of about 50 cents each"

MONDAY MORNING JUNE 3 1872

The Contest To Day

The issues of the campaign are made up and to-day they go to the people. The contest has been a peculiar one. On the Democratic side it has been conducted with a variety of pretenses plentifully seasoned with an [illegible] mischief with a [illegible] of [illegible] inventions. It has been assumed that the contest was one which involved the commercial independence and prosperity of Oregon, and that the Democratic party was the champion of this independence and prosperity — a singularly absurd and ridiculous conclusion to reach in view of the fact that it is to Republican policy and measures that the country owes its great commercial and industrial growth and progress. Never has the Republican party been untrue to the policy which it announced when it first came before the people. That policy has given the commercial interests of the country their present miraculous development and is steadily advancing them in a line to further greatness.

It was Republican policy which made practicable in Oregon the great enterprises which are now building up the State. Republican policy gave us a railway system and provided means whereby that system could be securely established. If the questions at issue in the election to-day are of a character like this, if they pertain in any way to the growth and commercial development of the State, then the Republican party is on the right side and should be sustained by the voice of the people.

But the issues, in the form in which they have been stated by the opposition, are mere vagaries. It is not a question of regulating fares and freights on the railroads, for the Legislature has no power over the subject. It is not a question whether the locks shall be built or not, for the company building the locks have a binding contract with the State to execute that work, and will be or should be, required to perform it. No one has power to invalidate their contract. A Republican Legislature, even if it should be so disposed, could not do it. Hence this matter is not at all in issue in the election, unless indeed the Democratic managers propose for the locks an additional subsidy, or intend to have the company released from their obligation. If either of these things is intended or likely to occur, it is all important that the Legislature should be Republican, so as to prevent it.

The Legislature of the last session was vicious and corrupt in a great many ways and should be rebuked by the people. This is one of the real issues in this election. Had the people had an opportunity to pass a verdict on this Legislature when it was freshly perpetrated, they would have sent into political oblivion all the authors of it. Could it now be brought to trial, free from party considerations, it would be overwhelmingly condemned.

In a national point of view this election will be of great importance. Could Oregon, heretofore a Democratic State, be rescued from that party, the result would be hailed as a triumph, all over the Union. To-day we are contending for the National Republican party, and should give that party the indorsement of the State of Oregon.

Illegal Voting

The Chief of Police publishes a statement that he has "information which leads him to believe that there are parties in our midst who design the deliberate commission of frauds upon the elective franchise." It may be so, but one would hazard nothing in guessing that if any frauds are committed nine-tenths of them will be perpetrated in the interest of the Democratic party. The Chief says he will act with vigilance in preventing and detecting such frauds, and we trust he will. In a party sense, Republicans have everything to gain by a fair and legal vote.

A Singular Situation

Two years ago the Democratic party came before the people of this State with humbugs and pretenses of various sorts in regard to State policy, railroad development and commercial progress. They won the election, but not on those issues. As soon as they had triumphed they went back from the positions they had taken and pledged themselves to the very [illegible] which they had declared would ruin the State. Can this party win again by the use of pretenses and humbugs? The situation now is not unlike what it was two years ago. We shall see the result.

Vote the Straight Ticket

A persistent attempt will be made to-day to induce Republicans to "trade" on certain candidates. By this game it is hoped that some of the Dolly Varden candidates may be pushed ahead. Burnett and Bellinger will both be traded by Democrats if votes for other candidates can be made by it. Let Republicans vote straight, from Congressman to the bottom of the county ticket. Their entire ticket is worthy of support.

For Prosecuting Attorney

Democratic mischief-makers have been asserting that certain Republicans are purposing to try to secure the defeat of George H Durham, Republican nominee for Prosecuting Attorney. Mr Durham is entitled to and will receive the whole Republican vote of the county and district. He should be and will be elected.

Vote in Your Own Precinct

The Constitution of the State requires voters to vote in the precincts in which they reside. An observance of this regulation is necessary to prevent the polls in one place or another from being overcrowded with people from other precincts. Offer your vote only in your own precinct.

Another Legislature Wanted

The locks company want the Legislature. Jo Teal has gone to Lane and other counties south with large sums of money to secure that result. Another contribution from the school fund is wanted.

A Full Vote

All that is necessary to secure a Republican triumph in Multnomah county to-day is to get out a full vote. Vote early and be prepared to bring others to the polls.

Its National Bearing

Republicans, vote to-day for the National Administration. By voting for Wilson you vote to sustain Grant. Push the column onward.

Let Us Send Good News

The day after to-morrow the Republican National Convention will assemble at Philadelphia. Let us send good news from Oregon.

Spurious Tickets

Look out to-day for spurious and pasted tickets. See that your tickets are genuine, straight Republican.

National Finances

The finances of the country are now in so easy and healthful a condition that it is possible to reduce taxation greatly. Congress is acting in accordance with this state of facts. The revenue system is greatly simplified and taxes that were most onerous are being cut down or removed. The ability and economy with which the finances of the country are managed reflect credit on the administration and justify the confidence reposed in the Republican party by the people. During the past two months the public debt has been reduced by more than twenty [illegible] of dollars. The aggregate reduction under the present administration has been about three hundred and forty millions. Every month has shown a reduction since Grant's [illegible]. The Republican party can point with satisfaction to its record in this respect and can go before the people with confidence that its record will be approved.

Judge Black on the Political Situation

An interview with Jeremiah S Black upon the political situation is published. Mr Black was Buchanan's Attorney General and is a Democrat of high standing. He says:

Had the Cincinnati Convention raked this world and the two adjacent it could not have found a fitter man to be a candidate or a more unfit one to be President than Mr Greeley, whose election he admits looks likely. The managers at Cincinnati deserve rebuke; they belittled a grand cause and ruined a great opportunity. The Convention should have stated the case and through its platform and nominations appealed to the high tribunal of public opinion.

The Prospect in the State

The news from all parts of the State is encouraging and gives just ground to hope for a Republican triumph. Unless all signs are at fault the outlook is much better than it was two years ago. Mr Wilson in the last general election was beaten by 3[illegible] votes. From nearly all the counties reports are received which give reason to expect that he will make gains over his vote of two years ago. But much depends on Multnomah. This county should increase its majority for Wilson. It will if Republicans work with energy for such a result.

Preservers of the Peace

All sorts of disreputable characters have been appointed as special policemen for service to-day. Among them are several who have been arrested at different times for vagrancy and for offences of different descriptions. Others are not citizens of the State. These are the characters selected to preserve the peace of the city.

Vote Early

Republicans should rally at the polls at an early hour. Voting commences at eight o'clock A M and will close at seven P M. All votes cast after the hour last named are illegal. Vote early so as to avoid the press that always takes place later in the day.

Avoid "Trading"

An attempt will be made to elect one or two of the Dolly Varden candidates by sacrificing the rest of the ticket. Many offers have been made to "trade" in behalf of Messrs Zieber and Norden. Look out.

Be Vigilant

Republicans, be vigilant to-day. Look out for repeaters. Beware of pasters. Scrutinize your tickets carefully. All devices will be tried by the opposition.

Senator Terry of Connecticut, recently re-elected by a combination of Republicans and Democrats, has written a letter soon to be published which will give no comfort to those who claim him as against Grant and in favor of Greeley. This statement is made on authority by the Boston Advertiser.

For campaign matter the Herald makes up a string of violent and blasphemous expressions, attributes them to Ben Holladay and presents them to its readers. The inference is that it considers these ugly births of its invention the matters at issue in the campaign.

Messrs Shattuck and Zeiber are running on the same ticket for the Legislature in this county. It is a different race from that run by the same parties at Oregon City several years ago, when Shattuck took the lead and Zeiber followed sharp after.

Swamp Lands

By maps in the County Clerk's office in Lane county it can be seen that the enormous quantity of two thousand and twenty-two and thirteen one-hundredths acres of swamp land has been selected in this county by the Swamp Land Commissioner. Several months time was consumed in making the selections for which the Commissioner draws his pay; maps have been made, surveys will cost considerable, and the gross amount the State will derive from this land in case it gets it will be $2 022 13. Considerable of the land, as the maps show, it is not swamp at all, some of it extending to the top of mountains, as many who are acquainted with the country can testify. Over one third of the whole number of acres has been filed on as homestead and pre-emption rights and men have their receipts for the same. Some of it has been settled on for from two to four years. Three persons have taken homesteads, three Government pre-emptions and three railroad pre-emptions have been filed to 795 68 acres, while the whole number of acres selected is only 2 022 13, leaving, if the settlers are not ousted from their claims, 1 226 45 acres, from which the State expects to receive $1 225 45. The expenses already incurred are probably double this sum. What do you think of this? Does it look honest? Is it for the benefit of the poor man? Will it benefit any man who wishes to settle on and cultivate the soil? It benefits none but speculators who gotten up in their interest and to furnish capital for the ring of which Gov Grover is the head. The honest people—those who are liable to be deprived of their homes by this infamous act will rebuke the makers of it next Monday.—State Journal.

INNOCENCE VINDICATED.—The Jacksonville Journal relates the following singular occurrence showing how sometimes innocent parties suffer from unjust accusations:

Fifteen years ago one Sam Steele worked on a farm for Mr George Barbour, who lived a mile and a half from this place. One day Mr Barbour came to town bringing his wife. Before starting he called in Steele and in his presence put $250 in a bureau drawer, locked it up, and delivered to him the key of the drawer as well as the key to the house, telling him to take care of both for the day. Returning home at night and recounting the money Mr Barbour found that a $50 bill was missing. Steele, who was the only one that knew of the whereabouts of the money besides Mr B, denied all knowledge of the missing bill, declaring that he had not entered the room since he did so with Barbour. The latter maintained that Steele must know something about it, and finally discharged him from his service. Steele left and has not been heard of since. A few days since Mr Barbour found the missing $50 in the back part of the bureau, caught in the frame. One half of the bill was worn away by the rubbing of the drawer as it had been pulled backward and forward. When he found it he burst into tears, conscious stricken from having unjustly accused and censured Steele. The remainder of the long lost bill is now in the possession of Mr John Bradbury.

OREGON

Two boys undertook to ride double on a colt at Albany last week, but the colt rode them to their serious injury.

From the Mountain Democrat we learn that the farmers of Union county have been favored with copious quantities of rain.

Rev G Hines has resigned his pastorate of the M E Church in Oregon City, his failing health preventing him from attending the duties of the charge.

The Albany Register says there is a slight advance in wheat noted. Some of our farmers who have shipped their wheat claim to have received [illegible] per bushel.

The prospects of a Republican victory to-day all over the State are brighter than at any time heretofore during the canvass. Wilson will be elected to Congress from Oregon to-day.

A large number of prominent Democrats in Linn county have published a card calling on F N Tandy to resign the Democratic candidacy for County Judge, as they say he is too well known to be elected.

Last Friday Willie Noble, youngest son of Orrin Noble of Lane county, about nine years old, was shot and killed. In attempting to get over a fence with his gun it was discharged and the contents entered his head, killing him instantly. He was near the house and in sight of his mother at the time of the melancholy occurrence.

Messrs Cantor and Baxter of Jordan Valley, Baker county, say that 710 acres have been sown to grain in that locality this season. There is a good chance in Jordan Valley for some one possessing enterprise and a small amount of capital to build a grist mill. All the flour that could be produced there would find ready sale at remunerative prices in our market.

The Mountaineer of last Saturday says: The Columbia river has raised about eighteen or twenty inches since our last issue. During the past three or four days it has not raised more than two or three inches. It will have to come up about twelve feet further before it will do any damage, and we doubt very much whether it will raise to that height this season.

Maps showing the selections of swamp and overflowed lands in Lane county have been filed in the office of the County Clerk. The total amount indicated as swamp is 2 022 acres, of which 795 acres have been settled on and improved. Of these settlers three are homestead claimants, four preemption claimants under the United States laws, and three railroad preemptions.

The Corvallis Gazette says: We learn from Superintendent Odeneal that the disease supposed to be small pox at the Siletz Reservation has been corralled on the lower farm by Gen Palmer. No new cases had occurred for some ten days previous to the latest news from there. If it was really small pox it was in a very light form. At any rate it was some contagious disease and the promptness of the Superintendent and Agent in preventing its spread is very commendable.

The Yreka Union tells the following good one on Brown, whom the County Court of Lane county at its last term assisted to return to his friends in the East: On Thursday the Oregon stage brought a passenger named Brown from some part of the sunny vale of Soap Creek, who was a confirmed invalid. He had a certificate from the Baptist clergyman at Eugene City endorsing him as an afflicted man of exemplary piety. When the stage stopped at Virginia Ranch for dinner, Joe Clough got out and gormandized a square meal, leaving the pious invalid in the coach. When he came out the latter inquired where he had been and was told he had been to dinner. "Dinner," says the traveler, "did you say dinner? Well dog essentially chaw me up, stranger, what kind of a d—d way is that to treat an unfortunate Christian a thousand miles away from home in an infernally d—d furren country." We pause to inquire if the salubrious atmosphere of Siskiyou is superinductive of profanity. One might suppose that man to have been addicted in his better days to the fascinating game of casino.

A sprightly youth at Vancouver was fined $10 and bound over to keep the peace for one year the other day, merely because he gave his old father a thrashing.

The Vancouver Register says: We have just learned that Gen T J McKinney has been superseded as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in the Territory and that Robert H Milroy has been appointed to the place.

The farmers on the Columbia bottom are apprehensive of an unusually high freshet the ensuing month. The crops this year being larger and more promising than ever before, the impending danger is actually felt.

The following business was transacted at the Land Office at Vancouver during the month of May: Original homestead entries, 1 [illegible]20 acres; final homesteads, [illegible]21 acres; pre-emptions, 1 880 acres; donation certificates, [illegible] acres; land sold at private entry, 500 acres.

The Sioux City (Iowa) Journal of May [illegible]th says: A number of Swedes who reside in this locality propose moving West to Puget Sound in autumn. They are raising a subscription to send an agent there for the purpose of examining the land and report upon its adaptability to farming purposes.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect and opened. The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State and the dining hall is unequaled. The rooms are all newly furnished. The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. MONDAY MORNING JUNE 3 1872

FROM SAN FRANCISCO —The steamer Ajax sailed from San Francisco for this port yesterday She brings the following passengers [illegible] Halladay Jr Geo K Otis Mrs Geo W Durbow, Mrs R Hicks and child W J Randall S F Owens and wife N H Hill E W Griggs W S Penny, J Spafford D Richardson H C Harrison W R Stewart E E Minor E L Hastings and family, Miss E Cary Miss E Cardinell F S Jones, H C Moher and son Mrs H T Martin and child, Miss M Whitelaw and sister J Gebby wife and child, Mrs J Williamson and children O C Baldy, wife and child Mrs Chappel, Mrs E W Lilly, G F Mullett, W A Stinger L E Phelps, J J Wilson, R M Wilbur and wife E L Maxwell and family, Rev Jno Rea H A Gaston Jno Allen, Master Sam Frank J W and T T Norton L Reed, A M Smith, J W Spielman and wife S J Smaley and wife, W H Radel ff, W Wells and family, G W Harger and wife, H Jones and family, W T Martin G Thorton W M Ellis H D [illegible] and wife Mrs Rosecbeck and 2 children W H Baser T R Demmett C C Berry C C [illegible], L Russell, J Moore Miss Karmosly Mrs J F Bowers, Mrs Wm Allen and child Miss A Black

INTENTION DECLARED —The following persons declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, before the Clerk of the U S District Court, on Saturday John O Connell of Ireland, Peter Hagner of Oldenburg Michael Loby, of England James Gloster of England Louis Tourney of France Joseph Closet, of France, Robert Bailey of England N J Perlet, of Belgium S A Sundstrum, of Sweden James Ridge, of Ireland, Cæsar Pascal, of France, Louis Sallonder of France, William Price, of Holland Thomas Tierney of Ireland

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP —The following persons were admitted to citizenship by Judge Deady on last Saturday John Foord, of England Henry Lindlinger of Prussia Charles Noyes, and August Gale, of France, Andrew Hughes William W Quinn James Martin of Ireland William Uhlenhart, F Matthies of Prussia D [illegible], of Hamburg, Emanuel Minard of [illegible], William Palmer, of England Julius [illegible], of Saxony The application of Robert Bailey for admission to citizenship was denied

IN ABUNDANCE —Some portions of this city seem in danger of being exterminated by the hosts of worming catapillers which invade the yards, trees, porches, and penetrate to every [illegible] quarter of the houses No place is too [illegible] or sacred for their intrusion It is a matter of [illegible] indifference whether they are [illegible] the mysteries of ladies' apparel or [illegible] across the features of a slumberer They all seem to be migrating, but whence come they, or whither tending, none can determine

ABOUT RIGHT.—The Herald of yesterday morning says that E A Crowin, of this city, delivered an able and appreciative speech at Oregon City last evening The paragraph is true to the letter, notwithstanding the chronic disease which that paper has to misrepresent Those who knew the speaker intended to be referred to have good grounds to presume that it was a "blowing" effort, and that it was duly appreciated—by himself

UNDER ARREST —A man named Butler who resides about twelve miles east of this city, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued from Justice Crich's Court in the hands of Constable Ryan Butler is charged with the crime of seducing his step daughter a young lady about 15 years of age He was brought to this city but will probably not be examined before tomorrow

RUNAWAY —A horse attached to a light buggy broke away from his fastenings yesterday, and started up street He made the circuit of several blocks and went dashing into the stable from where he was procured In the course of his wild career he came near colliding with teams and lamp-posts, but fortunately the horse, buggy and harness sustained no damage.

GOOD SELECTION.—We understand that efforts are being made to induce Prof T H Crawford, of Portland, to accept the position in the Wallamet University, lately occupied by Prof P[illegible], who has gone to the Eastern States This is a good selection as Mr Crawford is well known as a thorough and efficient teacher and [illegible].

IN DURANCE —Westgate, the man who was recently arrested at Oregon City by the Sheriff of [illegible]ook county and escaped from custody, and for whom a reward of $50 was offered, came into town last Friday under disguise, got his wife and worldly goods and took his departure, without any one knowing it was him until he was gone

THE POLLS —This morning at 8 o'clock sharp the polls of the various precincts of the county will be opened We advise all to attend as early as convenient, and cast their vote before the great rush is made in the afternoon This course will obviate the usual jam, and will save much time and inconvenience

NEW TRIAL —A motion for a new trial was made by Messrs Hill, Thayer & Williams on behalf of M. S Hart, awaiting sentence for fraud in the United States District Court, on Saturday morning. Tuesday morning was set by Judge Deady to hear the argument on the motion

TRANQUIL —Yesterday was a very tranquil day, being this is the election There was a great deal of buzzing going on at street corners and "cross roads " There were no fights or loud talking. We have heard of no arrests yet 'Tis now twelve o'clock and all is well

PRODUCE —The following quantities of produce were brought down on the train Saturday 1 493 [illegible] dried apples 1 car load flour 131 pounds wool, 115 pounds hides 21 head cattle, 767 pounds [illegible]; 266 pounds butter, 135 chickens 1,363 [illegible] bacon.

GREAT DEMAND —The amount of street improvements made and new buildings which are being constructed have made such constant and large demands for lumber that the various mills of the city are kept very busy at present

ARRIVED —The brig Brewster arrived from San Francisco on Saturday last She brought about 500 tons of assorted cargo which is being rapidly discharged at the wharf The bark H W Almy is also due at this port

TO SAIL.—The steamship John L Stephens will sail for San Francisco this evening at 10 o clock The Gussie Telfair will sail to morrow evening We are not apprised as to the sailing of the steamer Idaho now in port

OUT.—The two splendid new coaches which were brought up on the last steamer were out on the streets Saturday These are among the most superb vehicles of the kind in the city One of them cost $2,500

ARRIVED.—The steamer Idaho arrived here on last Saturday morning from Victoria and way ports. She brought a few passengers and 430 tons of freight, principally stone for the new Custom House and hay

ADDITIONAL COACHES —We learn that it is the intention of the California and Oregon Stage Co to put on at an early date several additional [illegible] to increase the speed and traveling facilities.

RETURNED —William Barry so well known in this city, returned here on the Idaho from Victoria. He will take his departure for San Francisco on the John L Stephens this morning

REGULAR MEETING —There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Wallamet Society at its rooms this (Monday) evening at 8 o clock A full attendance is desired

ORDERED FILED —The resignation of George R Durham, as Register in Bankruptcy, was presented to the U S District Court on Saturday and placed on file

SECOND CONCERT —The second concert, to be given by Miss Anna Mehlig, will take place at the new Masonic Hall to-morrow evening

Y M C. A —There will be a meeting of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association at their room this (Monday) evening

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer California will sail from San Francisco for Sitka via this port to-day

GREAT SPEECH OF ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS

Every available foot of space in the large Court room in this city was filled on Saturday evening and hundreds went away unable to obtain admission A large number who got seats inside were compelled to stand during the entire evening Out of the vast audience not half a dozen persons stirred from their seats or standing places while the speaking lasted

At the appointed hour Attorney General Williams the speaker of the evening appeared and was greeted with the most hearty cheers He was introduced by the Chairman of the County Central Committee and made one of the most powerful able and original speeches ever made in a political campaign in Oregon

He said on Monday a political campaign will be fought which would settle questions which were of vital and lasting importance and the people would at the ballot box render a verdict upon the issues as presented Republicans had tried and were trying to make the canvass upon the political record of the Democratic party, but the party which some called Democrats and known to others by other names, were endeavoring to divert public attention from the living questions of the day by cries of monopoly etc He would try to discuss the real issues to be determined at the election

Republicans say that there were certain acts of the last Legislative Assembly of this State which deserve the reprobation of those who wish to sustain the rights or advance the interests of the State Among these were an act called an Act to Protect Litigants but which really was an act creating a newspaper monopoly for the furtherance of party schemes, the Portland Police Bill which threw out of office men elected by the people simply because they were Republicans and put in Democrats who were the tools of Grover and trucklers to his ambition, thus substituting the will of the Governor for the will of the people In addition to these was the seizure of $200,000 sacredly set apart by the framers of the Constitution as an inviolate fund to educate the children of the State forever to subsidize a company of party favorites, and fasten upon the people of the State one of the most dangerous monopolies it had ever known Then again the act by which nearly 6 000 000 acres of land belonging to the State were held for the benefit of speculators and land grabbers, and those who would take up a homestead and settle on these lands and improve them were shut out from them Another gross outrage upon the rights of the people was the refusal of that Legislature to make the apportionment of its members in accordance with the plain provisions of the State Constitution

Of these several acts all of which Republicans say are wrong he would only discuss two the Lock Bill and the Swamp Land Act

Up to the time the Democrats got into power in this State, no one either in the Legislature, Congress or elsewhere had ever made any pretense that the provisions of our State Constitution did not divert the 500 000 acres of land granted by Congress for internal improvements, to the Common School Fund But when they got into power the Democracy discovered that it could be seized upon and given to party favorites, notwithstanding the Congress of the United States had declared that the act admitting the State into the Union virtually approved and affirmed the provisions by which such lands were set apart for the support of Common schools That provision was as binding upon the members of the Legislature as any other, and when those Solons at Salem assembled violated that fund they no less violated the oath taken on assuming their seats in that body The whole history of this scheme to plunder the people of the State shows it to have been one in which the interests of a few favorites of the Democratic party were to be subserved The original argument was that John F Miller, Jo Teal and others were to take $200,000 for the Lock and Dam subsidy at Oregon City Eighty thousand dollars were to be given to aid the construction of a wagon road from the Dalles to Portland and $60 000 to aid a wagon road somewhere in Southern Oregon, but Miller and Teal, through the Governor s connivance, cheated Fay and Trevett out of their share, and these last gentlemen causing the corrupt measure This bit of strategy on the part of Miller and Teal in getting their Lock and Dam Bill through the Legislature, and then defeating or refusing to carry out the balance of the programme was convincing proof of the fallacy of the old saying that 'There was honor among thieves '

But in addition to all this, though the speaker desired the improvement of navigation on all the navigable waters of Oregon he did object to the manner in which this Act was framed, as according to its provisions, bonds of the State of the value of $200 000 were given to this company before a pick was purchased or a blow struck and these bonds bearing interest the people were compelled to pay $240 000 or $250 000 before the Locks would be of any service to navigation whatever The speaker then proved beyond a doubt that position taken by him that the People s Transportation Company offered to build the Locks for $75 000 less than was given to Teal & Co, by evidence which was incontrovertible and conclusive He showed by the record of proceedings of the Legislature without reference to the affidavit of Mr McCully, heretofore published that Grover s pretense that the P T Co s offer was not the same as the offer of Teal & Co was the most arrant piece of demagogism and was as false as falsehood itself The debates in the House all show that the two propositions were exactly similar except in the names of the parties and the amount of the money to be given by the State

It was acknowledged tacitly that the money given by the State for this purpose belonged to the School Fund, by the provision therein that 10 per cent of the net profits should be paid to the School Fund but the net profits would in all probability not amount to anything as the bill gives the company power to pay its officers any salary it may see fit, or to dispose of the income in many ways by which no showing of net profits would ever be made Those who know the men who control the Locks know that their patriotism and liberality will not allow them to leave a margin of profit to accrue to the State when so easy a way can be found to pocket the entire proceeds themselves The attention of the Legislature was called to this and an amendment was offered substituting "gross proceeds for net profits, but Democratic members declared that such an amendment would take all the merit out of the bill and well might such have been said when all the merit the bill had was to put money in the pockets of Teal and his confreres in the plundering scheme Other efforts were made to protect the interests of the people by the minority in the Legislature among which was a bill to authorize the Governor to advertise and let to the lowest bidder the contract for building the Locks—the successful bidder of course, giving ample security for the performance of the contract but this was also calculated to take all the merit out of the bill ' in Democratic minds and was voted down And again the company so highly favored by the free use of the people s money were to control the Locks for twenty years when they would magnanimously offer them to the State for the price which the company might then set upon them Why should the State furnish the means to build the Locks and then wait twenty years? Why should the whole Wallamet Valley be fleeced for twenty years at the rate of fifty cents a ton for freight and ten cents a head for passengers carried through the Locks built with the people s money? Further there is nothing in the Act to protect the interests of the State or secure any further performance of the contract after the Locks are completed The men who obtained the passage of this Act were intending to get control of the entire river and the whole tenor of the Act shows it

Judge Williams then took up the Swamp Land Act and thoroughly ventilated its legal enormities clearly showing that it was enacted merely to put the swamp lands which belonged to the State in the hands of party favorites and land grabbers, to the exclusion of bona fide settlers, who would otherwise locate upon and improve them Armed with the authority of this law, speculators and deputy surveyors, under pay by the State were fastening upon some of the best lands in Oregon, and hereafter, when the immigrant arrived in our State and saw the broad expanse of unimproved lands spread out before him, he would be told that he could not have even a few acres for a homestead because it all belonged to the swamp land monopolists Never before did the arguments of Grover and the coterie of leeches who are fastened upon the people of Oregon receive so utter and complete a refutation upon the Swamp Land question as [illegible] gave them and we only regret that every voter in the State did not hear him Our want of space precludes us from giving an ample report of his discussion of this question

He then addressed himself to the question of railroads in Oregon and showed that the [illegible] of monopoly etc now raised by the Democracy was only for political effect as it was two years ago when his own course in Congress on that question had been so bitterly denounced and when flaming posters had been issued from this city partly at the instigation of and over the signature of that big hearted and liberal minded statesman L D Shattuck But after the election the Democrats took the same position he had on that question and memorialized Congress to pass the Humboldt and Rogue river railroad bill with the Williams' amendment and made Col Kelly sign a written pledge to support that measure he and they had so bitterly denounced but a few days previously before he could receive their votes for Senator

His defense of the administration of President Grant was clear and pointed and while he believed that the Democratic National Convention would endorse Greeley it was a matter of no consequence to Republicans as that party under the lead of the tried and true soldier Grant would march forward in November to certain victory and he hoped and believed that he would be able to telegraph to the National Convention at Philadelphia on next Wednesday to be read in the presence of the delegates from all the States that Oregon had again wheeled into line and with her sister States endorsed the hero of Vicksburg and the party of progress and that the days of Democracy were numbered

The speaker closed amid tumultuous applause and we feel assured that results in Multnomah county to day will be affected for good by his able effort We owe the eloquent gentleman an apology for our imperfect report of a speech which for force of logic, clearness of style and eloquence of delivery has seldom been equalled and perhaps never excelled in our State

THE ORO FINO THEATER "FIZZLE"

The last expiring effort of the soreback Democrats and Dolly Vardens to get up enthusiasm was made at Oro Fino Theater on last Saturday evening That this end might be the more easily accomplished flaming posters announced that 'Granny' Strong et al would address the citizens of Portland Fire rockets were sent careering through the air and the band tooted pounded and blowed but with a poor success The reporter wended his way to the Theater about a quarter past eight o clock, expecting to find the house crowded Judge of his surprise when he found only three persons present besides the Judge who was sitting behind the scenes wiping the dripping perspiration from his forehead and impatiently waiting for the crowd to drop in A few minutes before nine there being sixty or seventy persons present Judge Strong walked out on the stage without an introduction to the audience or scarce so much as a recognition that any one was present The moment he made his appearance that noisy fellow Mitchell—not the one who purchased the corpse—jumped up and gave three rousing (?) cheers for the speaker in which he was not joined by any one

Judge Strong began by saying that many had expressed a desire to hear the leading political topics of the day debated instead of discussed and that to secure this end a notice had been published asking Attorney General Williams to meet him That notice had failed to elicit an answer—a fact which was more attributable to a disposition to avoid an open public debate, where the questions could be investigated with the light of truth, than to any discourtesy on the part of Williams Strong declared that he always had been in favor of internal improvements It was true that he was an attorney of several large corporations among which were the O S N Co Lock and Canal Co and the N P R R This last corporation as far exceeded in magnitude and wealth the corporations of which Mr Holladay was the head and front as the O & C R R Co exceeded the old Portland Dray & Hack Co Of the fact that he was an attorney Strong seemed to boast but had a great many hard things to say against Mr Mitchell who he repeatedly declared, was in the 'paid employ of Holladay He stated that none of the corporations of which he was acting as attorney had in any manner ever sought to influence or control voters or to strangle the growth and prosperity of the State that they were superior to any of the monopolies of which Holladay was the leading spirit and principal stockholder A railroad extending through a valley like the Wallamet where the population was sparse and business limited must necessarily be a monopoly the growth and demands of which should be carefully watched and guarded against He said that he had been informed—by whom he did not say—that since the road had been completed it cost $2 more per ton to transport freight from Albany to San Francisco than before The Lock and Dam swindle was one of the best improvements which could be made to the State It was no monopoly but was free to all and would be no more a monopoly in the hands of Holladay than the present owners He said that the money appropriated by the Legislature for the construction of the Locks did not belong nor never had belonged to the School Fund, that the hue and cry was all political clap trap to catch votes There had never been any proposition from any other parties to build the Locks, nothing to substantiate the assertion but the naked affidavit ' of Mr McCully The Locks were being constructed in accordance with the exact provisions of the law, and would last if completed, as long as the river flowed Mr Brazee had carefully examined the works, and said that they could not be constructed for less than half a million dollars It was morally certain that these works could not be completed by the first of next January if the Republicans succeeded in getting the Legislature they would certainly refuse to grant an extension of time and would thus strangle the enterprise but if the Democracy carried the Legislature they like wise legislators would extend the time and so insure the improvement to the State He dwelt long and painfully on the Swamp Land Act and endeavored to show that it was a most wise and wholesome piece of legislation and was the direct means of saving to the State thousands of acres of worthless land The Metropolitan Police bill was copied by the last Legislature from the Republicans of New York He would be in favor of its regulations if the State Administration was Republican on account of its good effects that the good order which now reigned in this city was entirely attributable to the vigilance and wholesome regulations of the new police system that we would hear of burglaries as long as the 'heathen Chinee were employed about houses in the capacity of cooks and waiters He dealt several severe side thrusts at the Litigant Act by saying that the rates were a little exorbitant and ought to be reduced to commercial rates This announcement did not meet with any applause Judge Strong closed his hour and a half speech in a [illegible] diatribe against the personal characters of Attorney General Williams and Ben Holladay and the various gentlemen on the Republican county ticket The whole effort was unworthy of the speaker the audience and the occasion There was a show of candor and truth pervading the speech but it was sadly deficient in all the gentlemanly courtesies of discussion Some of the allusions were so coarse that a number of ladies who were present when the speaker commenced withdrew in disgust

When Strong subsided loud cries of Bob Ladd Joe Teal, Page Cronin and Dr Brown were mingled but the small crowd had been bored long enough and began to disperse so rapidly that Mitchell, who had furnished all the applause through telegraphic signals from the speaker, dried up ' One poor fellow, who had manifested decided symptoms of inebriety became so intoxicated from the combined effects of 'chained lightning and watered Dolly[illegible]cratic ideas that before the show was concluded he sank down between the seats in a state of slumbrous oblivion, and had to be borne out of the building

Thus ended the last effort of the Rump Dolly Vardenites The wake was held on Saturday evening, to-day we shall observe the funeral obsequies and bury from sight and sense the putrid remains

DEATH BY DROWNING

The sad intelligence of the death by drowning of Mr Le[illegible] Roberts son of Mr A[illegible] Roberts the [illegible] reached this city yesterday afternoon at about 3 o clock The particulars connected with the unfortunate occurrence are about as follows

Four young men a Mr Beck William Church and another person whose name we failed to learn and Mr Roberts left this city yesterday morning in a small sail boat and started to Milwaukie On reaching the place where the steamer landed with the Emmet Guard excursionists it was proposed that the four should stop and go to the picnic This was objected to by some and it was determined to sail on up to Milwaukie The river was quite smooth in sailing from this city but the further they proceeded the stronger the wind blew. Just opposite the White House a sudden gust of wind capsized the boat It was about the middle of the river In a moment the four men were struggling in the water Beck who could not swim clung to the rigging as did also the person whose name is not known Young Church swam to the ferry rope stretched across the river which was but a short distance from where the boat upset He soon let go the rope and swam back to the sail boat where the other two persons were clinging to the keel In the meantime young Roberts had left the capsized boat and started to swim to the shore When Church reached the boat Roberts was some distance off and swimming with all his might for the land The wind was blowing violently and the water was boisterous Roberts made but little progress against them Seeing that Roberts might drown Church shouted to him to come back to the boat Either Roberts did not understand what was said to him or else he was badly strangled Church perceiving that his friend s peril was increasing each moment, pulled off his coat and sprang after him but before he could reach him Roberts sank and was seen to rise no more, about seventy five yards from where the boat upset Seeing that Roberts was beyond human succor Church turned and started to swim back His two comrades were rescued by the ferry boat and he very narrowly escaped a watery grave before he was picked up

The sad intelligence was brought to this city with all possible dispatch Ropes and grappling irons were procured and the river dragged for some distance up and down where the young man was last seen At the latest accounts the efforts to recover the body were unsuccessful It will probably be some time before the remains can be found as the water was about fifty feet deep at that place Three boats were engaged up to a late hour last evening in dragging the river Every possible effort will be made to discover its whereabouts

The deceased was aged about 21 years He was a young man of exemplary habits, industrious steady and gave promise of a long and useful life As a companion he was generous frank, genial and was respected and admired by all who knew him Few young men could boast of possessing more noble elements of character or disposition The occurrence is a most afflictive bereavement A bright and promising young man—just entering the threshold of manhood with a long and prosperous life before him the hope and comfort of his doting father and the pride of his fond and only sister is thus suddenly and forever stricken from our midst From the dark portals of the grave and from that mysterious Unknown from whose waveless shores no weary mortal returns can come again words of comfort hope or consolation to those whose hearts have been crushed by this sad weight of sorrow

BABY LOST —As the last boat from the picnic ground was landing last evening, a gentleman kindly offered to carry Mrs Minard's infant child on shore for her After getting ashore Mrs M endeavored to find the child but up to this time unable to learn the whereabouts either of the child or the man It may be that owing to the great crowd on board they were unable to meet and her anxiety will be greatly relieved if the gentleman will leave the child at her residence on Oak between First and Second streets and receive a mother s gratitude

PLEASURES AND DANGERS —Boat sailing on the Wallamet while it may be a very pleasurable pastime is attended with its dangers A young man while sailing yesterday up and and down in front of this city was suddenly capsized by a gust of wind He clung manfully to the rigging and shouted lustily for help Attracted by his cries a boat went to his assistance and rescued him from his perilous situation It is an old saying but very true Never sail when the water is rough nor press more canvas than your boat can safely carry

EMMET GUARD —The picnic excursion given under the auspices of this company yesterday was a very pleasant affair The picnic was well attended All who were in attendance speak in unqualified terms of the satisfactory manner in which everything was conducted About [illegible] o clock the boat returned to the wharf with all the excursionists on board No accident occurred or any unpleasant circumstance to mar the pleasure of the participants

VOTE OF THANKS —We are requested on behalf of the members of Columbia Hose Company, to return a vote of thanks to Mr James [illegible]smith for a neat silver mounted fox tail recently presented by him to that company

TEMPERANCE —There will be a meeting of the members of the St Joseph s Society T A B to morrow evening The object of the meeting will be to elect officers for the ensuing year

NO COURT —The County Court was to have met this morning at the Court House but owing to the election will not convene until to morrow morning at 10 o clock

CANYON GARDEN —A concert was given at this place yesterday A full brass band was in attendance Those who attended report a very pleasant time

A Dead Delusion

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel if not absolutely a dead delusion is in the last agonies of dissolution At length it is conceded that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame though life may easily be purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs known as Hostetter s Stomach Bitters has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera Frantic attempts are made to revive it but in vain When the sick feel that their strength is departing and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives They may be imposed upon in this way once but the imposition cannot be repeated They desire to be refreshed comforted, braced up and decline to be griped a second time

Under the operation of the Bitters on the other hand all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously The system is stimulated and toned the bowels regulated the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable

Are the Children at Home.

Each day when the glow of sunset
Fades in the western sky,
And the wee ones, tired of playing,
Go tripping lightly by,
I steal away from my husband,
Asleep in his easy chair,
And watch from the open doorway
Their faces fresh and fair.

Alone in the dear old homestead
That once was full of life,
Ringing with girlish laughter,
Echoing boyish strife,
We two are waiting together,
And oft, as the shadows come
With a tremulous voice he calls me,
"It is night! are the children home?"

"Yes, love!" I answer him gently,
"They're all home long ago;"
And I sing, in my quivering treble,
A song so soft and low,
Till the old man drops to slumber,
With his head upon his hand,
And I tell to myself the number,
Home in a better land.

Home, where never a sorrow
Shall dim their eyes with tears!
Where the smile of God is on them
Through all the summer years!
I know!—Yet my arms are empty
That fondly folded seven,
And the mother heart within me
Is almost starved for Heaven!

Sometimes in the dusk of evening,
I only shut my eyes,
And the children are all about me,
A vision from the skies;
The babes whose dimpled fingers
Lost the way to my breast,
And the beautiful ones, the angels,
Passed to the world of the blest.

With never a cloud upon them,
I see their radiant brows;
My boys that I gave to freedom—
The red sword sealed their vows!
In a tangled Southern forest,
Twin brothers, bold and brave,
They fell; and the flag they died for,
Thank God! floats over their grave.

A breath, and the vision is lifted
Away on wings of light,
And again we two are together,
All alone in the night.
They tell me his mind is failing,
But I smile at idle fears;
He is only back with the children,
In the dear and peaceful years.

And still the summer sunset
Fades away in the west,
And the wee ones, tired of playing,
Go trooping home to rest,
My husband calls from his corner,
"Say, love! have the children come?"
And I answer, with eyes uplifted,
"Yes, dear! they are all at home!"

Victoria and Napoleon.

VISIT OF VICTORIA TO NAPOLEON AND EUGENIE.

The London Standard, of April 22, says: On Saturday afternoon Her Majesty the Queen, accompanied by their Royal Highness the Prince Leopold and the Princess Beatrice, and attended by the Marchioness of Ely, Lady Waterpark and Lord Alfred Paget, proceeded to Chiselhurst to pay a visit to their Imperial Majesties the Emperor and Empress Napoleon. The royal party left the Windsor station at ten minutes to three o'clock, and were warmly received by a large number of people assembled at the different stations en route, arriving at Chiselhurst a few minutes before four o'clock. For some hours previous to the arrival of Her Majesty the station at Chiselhurst was besieged by a large concourse of visitors anxious to catch a glimpse of the Queen, but so perfect were the arrangements made by Mr. Lord, the energetic station master, and the police force that Her Majesty and the royal party were enabled to alight from the train and proceed to the carriages in waiting without the least inconvenience. Outside the station and all along the roadway up to the Camden House, and up the hillsides which line the best portion of that picturesque thoroughfare, were, to use a common but expressive term, black with people. It was not a pleasant day at Chiselhurst. The hill upon which Camden House stands was continuously swept by a bitterly cold wind, and it seemed as if it carried with it all the dust of the surrounding counties. After a [illegible] everybody became white with dust and blue with cold; and to mend matters the sun [illegible] provokingly bright; so that between the dust and the sun one's eyes became perfectly [illegible]. Still people stood for hours along each side of the roadway, and had the satisfaction of seeing the royal party [illegible] three times. Her Majesty, the Princess Beatrice, and Prince Leopold occupied an open carriage drawn by four gray horses, preceded by outriders, and followed by another carriage, containing the ladies and the equerry in waiting. The royal party was received at Camden House by the Marquise de la Grange, Mme. Le Breton, Mlle. de L[illegible], the Duc de Bassano, the Marquis de la Grange, the Comte Davillier, The Comte C[illegible], Marquise de Bassano, and the Baron Corvisart. The Emperor and Empress looked well. The interview lasted close upon half [illegible]. Conversation was carried on in [illegible] French. The Emperor and [illegible] personally saw her Majesty to her carriage, and doubtless felt gratified by a visit [illegible] all the more courteous and flattering [illegible] to the fact that it was [illegible] paid on the Emperor's birthday.

After the visit Her Majesty proceeded with Prince Leopold and Princess Beatrice to F[illegible] the [illegible] of Viscount and Viscountess [illegible], with whom the Queen took tea, and [illegible] back to Chiselhurst Station, [illegible] by Lord and Lady Sydney, who had the [illegible] of kissing hands with Her Majesty [illegible] the platform. The Queen [illegible] twenty-six minutes past [illegible] somewhat later than what was at first arranged, and traveling via [illegible] and Waterloo, arrived at Windsor at [illegible] o'clock P. M. Her Majesty [illegible] to the Castle.

Their Royal Highness Princes Albert Victor and George of Wales left Chiswick at 18 [illegible] past [illegible] P. M. on Saturday, by [illegible], and arrived at Windsor at [illegible] past five o'clock, proceeding to [illegible]. The Princes, who were [illegible] in excellent health. They will stay with Her Majesty during the [illegible] of the Prince and Princess of Wales on the Continent. Her Majesty is expected to [illegible] to London to-morrow and stay at Buckingham Palace till Thursday, returning on that day to Windsor Castle.

COLDS AND HOW TO TREAT THEM.—When you are attacked again with a hard cold treat it as follows: Eat no supper. On going to bed drink two tumblers of cold water. For breakfast eat a [illegible] of dry bread as large as [illegible]. Go out freely during the morning. For dinner eat about the same as you ate at breakfast. During the afternoon take a [illegible], or engage in some active exercise [illegible] perspiration. Go without supper and retire early drinking before you jump into bed, as much cold water as you can swallow. The next [illegible] you are nearly well. If, instead, you feed the cold, it will stay a week or ten [illegible] up with a hard cough and expectoration. A cold is not, as many think, the consequence of exposure to a sudden change in the atmosphere. It is the product of two things: one is a certain condition of the system, and the other is a certain condition of the weather. The only soil in which [illegible] can grow is a [illegible] condition of the system, the [illegible] feature of which is a [illegible]. Those who have good digestion very rarely have colds. So, to prevent them, you must keep your stomach in good condition; in other words, you must keep yourself in high health. There are some habits which give a general tendency to colds. For example, the use of hot drinks, which, in addition to flooding and weakening the stomach, open the skin, and increase the susceptibility to the influence of external changes. The use of warm baths especially warm foot baths. Sleeping in close, unventilated rooms. Wearing the same flannels during the night that have been worn during the day. Using fat meats and pastry, thereby deranging the stomach and liver.—Dr. Dio Lewis.

A LITTLE TOO VIGILANT.—There is a man in Darby, Pa., who purchased a bull-dog, which he prepared to turn loose in his store at night in order to scare away burglars. The first evening after he obtained possession of the animal, he locked it in the store and went away a happy man. The next morning, early, he went round to the store and unlocked the door. The dog was vigilant—the man was surprised to see how very exceedingly diligent that dog was for no sooner was the door opened than the dog seized its owner by the leg, suddenly, and seemed to be animated by an earnest and vigorous resolution not to let go until it had removed at least one good mouthful. And the man pushed the dog back and shut the door on its ribs until the animal relaxed its jaws; and then the man kicked the dog back into the store and shut the door as if he was in a hurry to do something. Then he suspended business for a week, and spent the vacation firing at the dog through the windows, and down the chimneys, and up through the cellar ceiling with a shotgun, trying to exterminate him. And that mercantile establishment did not open for trade until the man had paid twice the first cost of the dog to the dog's former owner to come and take it home, and then, when he got in, he found that during the bombardment holes had been shot through the mackerel barrels and molasses cans, and coal oil kegs, so that there was misery and ruin everywhere. Dogs have no more charms for this man.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance; to its authority a willing obedience; to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue; but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country: and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages; to agriculture remunerative prices; to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, laborer and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less; and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabber and speculator; whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State offices and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so called litigant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and [illegible] of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible [illegible], who can furnish [illegible] sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war; to a complete nationality; to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States; to our Territories rapidly warming into State life; to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery; to an elevated and enlarged citizenship; to our national standing at home and abroad; to the work of vigorous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust, to an unequaled foreign credit, to a successful and solid financial system, and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain; and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

READ AND PRESERVE THIS!

For the accommodation of voters, we publish the boundaries of the various city precincts, as revised and altered by the County Commissioners at the late session of the court. WHO ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE.—So that there may be no misunderstanding in reference to the legal qualifications of voters, especially in regard to the length of time a person must reside in the State, county and precinct before he is entitled to vote, we publish the following:

All male inhabitants who are of lawful age, who are citizens of the United States, or who have declared their intention to become citizens one year preceding the election, have a right to vote for Congressman in this county if they have resided in this State for six months next preceding the election; for Congressman and District officers (Prosecuting Attorney) if they have resided in the State six months and in the District ninety days; for Congressman, District officers and county officers if they have resided in the State six months, and in the county and precinct ninety days, preceding the election. A voter may vote in any precinct in the county for State and county officers; but ninety days' residence in a precinct is necessary before he can vote for precinct officers.

RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,
Oregon and California R. R. Co. and
European and Oregon Land Co.,
PORTLAND, OREGON, August [illegible], 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND [illegible] of [illegible] to the lands [illegible] placed in market, [illegible] securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a form in the following words, to-wit:

Pre-emption, dated, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of ——, State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands of the Company, in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Post Office address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that —— of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of property), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party, or the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed)
Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issue, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

Are the Children at Home.

Each day when the glow of sunset
Fades in the western sky
And the wee ones tired of playing
Go tripping lightly by
I steal away from my husband
Asleep in his easy chair
And watch from the open doorway
Their faces fresh and fa[illegible]

Alone in the dear old homestead
That once was fu[illegible]
Ringing with girlish laughter
Echoing boyish strife
We two are waiting together
And oft as the shadows come
With a tremulous voice he calls me
It is night are the children home

Yes love I answer him gently
They're all home long ag[illegible]
And I sing in my quivering treble
A song so soft and low
Till the old man drops to slumber
With his head upon his hand
And I tell to myself the number
Home in a better land

Home where never a sorrow
Shall dim the[illegible]
Where the[illegible]
Through all the summer year
I know —Yet my arms are empty
That fondly folded seven
And the mother heart within me
Is almost starved for Heaven

Sometimes in the dusk of evening
I[illegible]
And the children[illegible]
A vision from[illegible]
The babes whose dimpled fingers
Lost the way[illegible]
And the[illegible]
Passed to the world of the blest

With never a cloud upon th[illegible]
I see their radiant brows
My boys that I gave to freedom—
The red sword sealed their vows
In a tangled Southern forest

Victoria and Napoleon

VISIT OF VICTORIA TO NAPOLEON AND [illegible]

The London Standard of April [illegible] says On Saturday afternoon Her Majesty the Queen, accompanied by their Royal Highness the Prince Leopold and the Princess Beatrice and attended by the Marchioness of Ely Lady Waterpark and Lord Alfred Paget proceeded to Chiselhurst to pay a visit to their Imperial Majesties the Emperor and Empress Napoleon The royal party left the Windsor station at ten minutes to three o clock and were warmly received by a large number of people assembled at the different stations en route, arriving at Chiselhurst a few minutes before four o'clock For some hours previous to the arrival of Her Majesty the station at Chiselhurst was besieged by a large concourse of visitors anxious to catch a glimpse of the Queen, but so perfect were the arrangements made by Mr Lord, the energetic station master, and the police force that Her Majesty and the royal party were enabled to alight from the train and proceed to the carriages in waiting without the least inconvenience Outside the station and all along the roadway up to the Camden House, and up the hillsides which line the best portion of that picturesque thoroughfare, were, to use a common but expressive term, black with people. It was not a pleasant day at Chiselhurst The hill upon which Camden House stands was continuously swept by a bitterly cold wind, and it seemed as if it carried with it all the dust of the surrounding counties After a short time everybody became white with dust and blue with cold, and to mend matters the sun shone provokingly bright, so that between the dust and the sun one's eyes became perfectly useless Still people stood for hours along each side of the roadway and had the satisfaction of seeing the royal party as many as three times Her Majesty the Princess Beatrice, and Prince Leopold occupied an open carriage drawn by four gray horses, preceded by outriders and followed by another carriage, containing the ladies and the equerry in waiting The royal party was received at Camden House by the Marquise de la Grange, Mme Le Breton, Mlle de Larminat, the Duc de Bassano, the Marquis de la Grange, the Comte Davilier, The Comte Clary, the Marquise de Bassano, and the Baron Corvisart The Emperor and Empress looked well The interview lasted close upon half an[illegible] Conversation was carried on in both English and French The Emperor and Empress personally saw her Majesty to her carriage, and doubtless felt gratified by a visit which was all the more courteous and flattering owing to the fact that it was [illegible] paid on the Emperor's birthday.

After the visit Her Majesty proceeded with Prince Leopold and Princess Beatrice to Frognal, the [illegible] of Viscount and Viscountess Sydney, with whom the Queen took tea, and then drove back to Chiselhurst Station, [illegible] by Lord and Lady Sydney who had the honor of [illegible] hands with Her Majesty [illegible] leaving the platform The Q[illegible] quitted Chiselhurst twenty six minutes past five o clock, being somewhat later than what was at first arranged, and traveling via London Bridge and Waterloo, arrived at W[illegible] at 6 o'clock P M Her Majesty drove immediately to the Castle

Their Royal Highness Princes Albert Victor and George of Wales left Chiswick at 18 minutes past 3 o'clock P M on Saturday, by south western train, and arrived at Windsor at [illegible] minutes past five o clock, proceeding to W[illegible] Castle The Princes, who were d[illegible] in Scotch suits, seemed in excellent h[illegible] They will stay with Her Majesty during the [illegible] of the Prince and Princess of Wales on the Continent Her Majesty is expected to [illegible] to London to-morrow and stay at Buckingham Palace till Thursday, returning on that day to Windsor Castle

Colds and How to Treat Them —When you are attacked again with a hard cold treat it as follows Eat no supper On going to bed drink two tumblers of cold water For breakfast eat a piece of dry bread as large as your hand. Go out freely during the morning. For dinner eat about the same as you ate at breakfast During the afternoon take a sharp walk, or engage in some active exercise [illegible] produce a little perspiration Go without your supper and retire early drinking [illegible] you jump into bed, as much cold water as you can swallow The next morning you are nearly well If, instead you feed the cold, it will stay a week or ten days, and [illegible] up with a hard cough and expectoration A cold is not, as many think the result alone of exposure to a sudden change in the atmosphere. It is the product of two factors one is a certain condition of the within, and the other is a certain condition of the without. The only soil in which this plant can grow is a certain condition of the system, the prominent feature of which is a deranged stomach Those who have good digestion very rarely have colds. So to prevent [illegible] you must keep your stomach in good condition, in other words, you must keep yourself in high health There are some habits which give a general tendency to colds For example, the use of hot drinks which, in addition to flooding and weakening the stomach open the skin and increase thereby sensibility to the influence of external changes The use of warm baths especially warm foot baths Sleeping in close unventilated rooms Wearing the same flannels during the night that have been worn during the day Using fat meats and pastry thereby deranging the stomach and liver —Dr Dio Lewis.

A Little too Vigilant —There is a man in Derby, Pa, who purchased a bull dog which he proposed to turn loose in his store at night in order to scare away burglars The first evening after he obtained possession of the animal, he locked it in the store and went away a happy man The next morning, early, he went round to the store and unlocked the door The dog was vigilant—the man was surprised to see how very exceedingly diligent that dog was—for no sooner was the door opened than the dog seized its owner by the leg suddenly, and seemed to be animated by an earnest and vigorous resolution not to let go until it had removed at least one good mouthful And the man pushed the dog back and shut the door on its ribs until the animal relaxed its jaws and then the man kicked the dog back into the store and shut the door as if he was in a hurry to do something Then he suspended business for a week and spent the [illegible] in the windows and [illegible] in the chimneys and up through the [illegible] to [illegible] The estal lishment did not open for trade until the man had paid [illegible] the first co[illegible] of the dog to the [illegible] and took it home and then when he got in he found that during the bombardment holes had been shot through the [illegible] and [illegible] so that the[illegible] everywhere Dogs h[illegible] no more [illegible] this man

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND MARCH 27 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon in Convention makes this declaration of its principles [illegible]

1 To the Constitution of the United States and of its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support

2 That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt diminishing and equalizing taxation administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency [illegible] the civil service enforcing the laws without fear or favor protecting the nation's wards with paternal care [illegible] just the cruel avarice of speculation and [illegible] maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers has been such as to [illegible] and the approbation of the [illegible] majority of the American people and justly entitles it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican

3 We regard the payment of our national debt in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting as no longer a question [illegible] but that we may be clearly understood we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers as not only national calamities but positive crimes and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction

4 We admit of no distinctions between citizens whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion and we hereby pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons so unterly coming to or residing in our land

5 We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only in quantities not exceeding 160 acres

6 That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government by duties upon imports sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the country and we commend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages to agriculture remunerative prices to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill labor and enterprise and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence

7 We believe that popular education is the bulwark and hope of a free government and we will oppose any diversion of or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State for any other than the legitimate purpose and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars taken from the school fund were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites for the construction of a work which another corporation entirely [illegible] and responsible offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education

8 We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers and given without [illegible] competition or price to the land grabbers [illegible] whereby the [illegible] and salaries of State officials has been unconstitutionally increased and the taxes to create thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and [illegible] for party favorites and whereby the [illegible] have been deprived [illegible] right of controlling their [illegible] And we equally condemn the abominable ratio of [illegible] State and laws as extravagant reckless illegal and destructive and we rightfully charge all those results as the acts of the Democratic party

9 We are in favor of the United States granting to each honorably discharged soldier [illegible] the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands

10 That we demand the repeal of the so-called Hill gag act which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense

11 That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland Oregon to Salt Lake City and from Jackson county to Humboldt and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same

12 That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty by refusing to license other than law abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13 That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State

14 We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure [illegible]
